

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers, could we have your attention just a moment, please, here, on 337A.

CLERK: Senator, you had an amendment pending from last year that would have struck Section 8 of what I believe was Senator Johanns' amendment to the bill that was adopted.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, because of the adoption of Senator Johanns' amendment, the portion that I would want to strike would be number 7 rather than 8, and it would be number 7 of the amendment that was adopted. And, Senator Johanns, would you verify that this is what we talked about and what we've agreed that the amendment should do since it is being offered?

PRESIDENT: Senator Johanns.

SENATOR JOHANNIS: Yes, I would concur.

PRESIDENT: Okay, thank you. Thank you, Senator Chambers.

CLERK: So, Senator, you want to strike Section 7 of Senator Johanns' amendment, is that right?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes.

PRESIDENT: It is stricken.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers, you wish to speak about what you wish to strike?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman, the way you responded on that and was going to strike the amendment of your own volition expresses great confidence and trust in what it is that I'm trying to do, but we will have to vote on it.

PRESIDENT: Yes, I'm sorry, I was distracted.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: What this does is strike a provision that says that...I don't have the amendment before me, it has to do with any existing law or case law that is in conflict would be superseded or overridden by these provisions, and Senator
